

How to submit a proposal for a LWP new study

A4 Proposal
Objective & Methods
Study population, inclusion period and data needed (Med A, B or C)

LWP chair (B Glass, Bertram.Glass@helios-gesundheit.de) / LWP study coordinator (H Finel, herve.finel@upmc.fr)

LWP chair & LWP members at bi-weekly conference SCREENING for competing studies, scientific interest and feasibility

Invitation for PRESENTATION at LWP bi-weekly virtual meeting

4-5 slides (10-15min)
-Background
-Objective
-Methods-inclusion criteria, study period, data required (Med A, B or C)
-Timelines
-Feasibility

Participants to VOTE
-yes/no/modification
-priority

LWP Chair/LWP members at bi-weekly conference to assign PRIORITY
-1- high: immediate start
-2- medium: start before projects on hold
-3- standard: start when current workload is completed

What happens when a study has been approved

What we expect from you

Written proposal: 4 weeks from acceptance

What we will do

- Send invitation letters/questionnaires: 2 weeks
- Data collection: 3-6 months
- Data entry: 15 patients/day
- Data analysis: 1-2 weeks

Expectation

≈6-9months from launching the study to results for an abstract/manuscript

-1st draft: 4-6 weeks after final analysis